DRAGON TAELES is the newsletter for the Canton of Dragon's Bay and is available online, or from the Acting Chronicler, Mistress Liduina, as a paper copy, (available at The Dragon's Lair on Sundays). Dragon Taeles is published quarterly, i.e. there is a Summer, Autumn, Winter & Spring edition.

Dragon Taeles is not an official publication of the Society for Creative Anachronism, (SCA) and does not delineate SCA policy. The official newsletter for the Society in Australia is Pegasus, which is available from the Registrar at registrar@lochac.sca.org.au

Closing date for submissions (copy) for Dragon Taeles is the 25th of June, September, December & March. Advertising, including event flyers, can be sent in JPEG, Windows or msPublisher and is free.

Greetings Populace,

We have some exciting weeks ahead of us and some events are in the works which will prove to be fun times for all. Things to look forward to include a second Agincourt Run on July 23rd at The Lair, following the success of the spontaneous one just past. A big thank you to Lord Gotz and Lord Sigmund for armouring up and taking a bashing from the archers.

Next time there may even be some unruly Black Dogs that we will have to train to stay behind the shooting line.

Also coming up for Dragons Bay is an IKAC, (to be held at Wandi) the Champion of the Bow Tournament (to be held at Boddington) and The Enduring Green Dragon Games Day.

This year's Green Dragon will be a bit different from the last two in that we will have a day event, utilising the Lair Hall and Grounds. It will again be a potluck which will include the use of the BBQ. We have some entertaining challenges in the works for our games and the potluck itself will be a themed competition. More details will be released closer to the event date.

Their Majesties will be in attendance for the Bal D'Aneala in August, as well as for the Baroness' Fighter auction on the Sunday. Don't forget to send in your recommendations for Awards to both The Crown and to the Baron & Baroness.

I'd like to do a bit more work on the DB website to bring it up to speed. If you would like to be made known as a member of the populace (or to update what's already there), please send me a picture you want to use and your SCA name along with any awards to be listed.

Yours in service,

Lady Avalon of the Isle

Archery training at Dragon's Lair on Sunday morning is so much more fun, now that we have the Heavies on board to allow for an Agincourt Run on the 3rd Sunday of the month, thanks to Lords Sigmund and Gotz and the silent knight in the middle.

The next Agincourt Run is slotted for Sunday 23rd July, (starting at 10am) and rumour has it that there will be a lot more live targets to shoot at, with thanks to Lord Gotz and the Mercenaries from the Black Dogs Cohort.

Great action shots by Lealan.....Sigmund was on the receiving end of quite a few 'owie' shots at the Agincourt Run on Sunday 25 June at Dragon's Lair.

A Grete Pye

by Master Chef 3rd October 2011 From epicurus.com / Ancient cuisine retrieved from https://www.epicurus.com/food/recipes/a-grete-pye/3070

The medieval game pie in this recipe was and remains a wonderful, economical and delicious treat. Still today, we make these in the form of pates, chicken and beef pot pies. A true classic!

Serves: 6 to 8

Ingredients

1 pound short crust pastry

1 egg white; beaten until liquid

1 pound boned breasts of chicken

1 pigeon or wild duck and/or

1 saddle of hare or rabbit (not stewing meat)

salt and black pepper

1 pound minced beef

2 Tablespoons shredded suet

3 hard-boiled eggs, yolks crumbled

1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon and mace and a pinch of ground cloves

1 ounce stoned cooking dates chopped

1 ounce currants

2 ounces stoned prunes soaked and drained

1/2 Cup beef stock

1 Tablespoon rice flour or cornflour

Instructions

- 1. No Christmas feast in medieval times was complete without a 'grete pye'.
- 2. In some recipes, it could contain many varied meats, but quite often only two or three different kinds were suggested; change the meats suggested here if you wish.
- 3. Use just over half the pastry to line a 23-cm/9-inch pie plate. Brush the inside with some of the egg white.
- 4. Skin the pieces of breast and other meat if necessary and parboil them gently in salted water for 10-15 minutes. Drain and leave to cool.

- 5. Mix together in a bowl the minced beef, suet, salt and pepper to taste, the egg yolks and half the spice mixture. Add the rest of the spices to the dried fruit in another bowl.
- 6. Slice the parboiled meat.
- 7. Pre-heat the oven to 220C/425F/Gas Mark 7.
- 8. Add 1 or 2 tablespoons of the beef stock to the rice flour or cornflour in a small saucepan and cream them together; then add the remaining stock and stir over gentle heat until slightly thickened. Keep aside.
- 9. Cover the bottom of the pastry case with half the mince mixture. Arrange the sliced meat in a flat layer on top.
- 10. Scatter the chopped spiced fruit over it and cover with the remaining mince.
- 11. Pour the thickened stock over the lot.
- 12. Roll out the remaining pastry into a round to make a lid for the pie. Brush the rim of the case with a little more egg white and cover with the lid.
- 13. Press the edges to seal, and make escape slits for steam. Decorate with the pastry trimmings and glaze with egg white.
- 14. Bake for 15 minutes, then reduce the heat to 160C/325F/Gas Mark 3 and bake for 45-50 minutes longer.

Serves 6 to 8.

Notes

Grete pyes. Take faire yonge beef, And suet of a fatte beste, or of Motton, and hak all this on a borde small; and caste therto pouder of peper and salt; and whan it is small hewen, put hit in a bolle. And medle hem well; then make a faire large Cofyn, and couche som of this stuffur in. Then take Capons, Hennes, Mallardes, Connynges, and parboile hem clene; take wodekokkes, teles, grete briddes, and plom hem in a boiling pot; And then couche al this fowle in the Coffyn, And put in euerych of hem a quantite of pouder of peper and salt. Then take mary, harde yolkes of egges, Dates cutte in ij peces, reisons of coraunce, prunes, hole clowes, hole maces, Canell and saffron. But first, whan thoug hast cowched all thi foule, ley the remenaunt of thyne other stuffur of beef a-bought hem, as thou thenkest goode; and then strawe on hem this: dates, mary, and reysons, &c. And then close thi Coffyn with a lydde of the same paast, And putte hit in the oven, And late hit bake ynough; but be ware, or thou close hit, that there come no saffron nygh the brinkes there-of, for then hit wol neuer close.

Serve with a good hearty ale, a rich red wine or if you have it, a flagon of mead.

Thank you Lealan (Chr.)
