Norek

One fine, sunny morning, Archery at the Dragon's Lair took on a whole new meaning for young Matthew (age 6).

He competed in his first IKAC and did rather well. . . .even scored a bulls-eye ! He then took it one step further and managed a total score which rivalled his Papa, who competed in the Open competition. Well done , young Archer.

Want more archery fun. . . . ??????

The Dragons Bay Champion of the Bow will be run in August—see flyer for details.

Seneschal's Words of Wisdom

Greetings Populace,

The latter half of the year is shaping up to be full of fun things and stuff! We have the Dragons Bay Champion of the Bow coming up in about a week and a half. If you haven't ordered your materials already and you'd like to be able to make a new set of arrows for the Saturday workshop, Lady Isobel (Rachel Kerr) has a price list for a place in Carlisle where SCA members can get a discount. Ordering in groups also helps, so pop a notice on the Champion event page in Dragons Bay if you're interested.

After a few fun Anealan events that I am also looking forward to, Dragons Bay will again be hosting our big annual Green Dragon Feast and Games Day in early November. More info on that will come soon, but save the date! (Flyer in this Issue of Dragon Tael) We have some prep to do for this event that I'd like to start on at the next A&S meeting, August 4th at Skjalddis' and Best's house. We have a Herald Tunic to add to our regalia as well as chair covers to finish. If anyone would like to come by to help, it would be much appreciated. Because there are quite a few chair covers to do, it was decided that we will also keep meeting each Sat (pending people's availability) after August 4th until they are finished. I will put up notices in the Book of Faces group to announce the location of these workshops. If you can't make it or sewing is not your jam but you still want to help, I will be printing more Vinyl Noreks to iron onto the back of the chair covers. They will need picking of the negative material not needed around the pattern, so I could chuck a few your way to help with the workload since those things can get very tedious. Also, if anyone would like to craft this year's Norek Archery target, let me know. I used a simple paper mache method with flour, water and lots of drying and layers, but you can use whatever creative methods you like. Keep in mind that we like to fill it with goodies.

As always, if you ever have an idea for an event or ways to enrich our Canton with cool things and stuff, come to a meeting to make a proposal or e-mail me, seneschal.dragonsbay@yahoo.com.au.

Lastly, I have infused some more photos into the DB website, so have a visit to check out the new stuff. You might be in the slideshow! (And please let me know if you do not want to be in it.^^)

Yours in service,

Lady Avalon of the Isle
