Overview:

The Golden Thimble is a competition that has been run in several Kingdoms of the society and I am keen to bring the excitement and challenge to our local artisans.

The competition is a 24 hours costuming challenge, where a team of up to 4 create a complete outfit for a nominated victim or model. The outfit needs to include as many layers as possible and be within the period of the scope of the SCA.

General Rules for the Competition: (This is not a complete list at this stage.)

- Teams have 24 hours to create their outfit.
- Once on site team members are not permitted to leave unless an emergency arises.
- Teams must bring all their supplies to site, there will be no visiting Spotlight or similar to get forgotten items and it is not permitted to get others to bring extra supplies to site. Teams may borrow from other teams if they are agreeable.
- Teams must supply all machines and tools they need, including extension cords and power boards.
- It is up to the decision of the individual teams how they gather their supplies i.e. if they all donate cash to buy or donate items from their stash. There is no limit on the cost of the outfit.
- Victims (or Models) may be members of the team or another gentle that will need to be available on site for fittings etc. during the course of the competition.
- It is encouraged that teams select their victims to be a gentle who needs new garb or is a newcomer needing help. Teams will be able to have meeting with their model before the competition to discuss what style of garb will be constructed and other essential planning under taken such as pattern selection.
- There will be an area set aside for naps or rests.
- Food will be supplied to teams, as well as ongoing coffee and tea facilities. Snacks are encouraged. Dinner on Saturday will be a pizza run or similar however team members may not leave it will be a nominated minion to go hunt and gather.
- Certain items will be permitted to be made beforehand; a list will be supplied later.
- At commencement of the competition teams will be required to present their uncut fabrics and trims to ensure no one has started early.
- At the completion of the 24 hour period the teams will present their creations to any other members of the SCA populace who would like to come along for a lunch. The winners will be decided on a points system and there will also be a popular choice award.
